Edward Wilder, the wealthy retired druggist of Louisville, died last Tuesday.

The Georgia Press Association, one hundred strong, met at Savannah this week.

Two colored men were killed by a railroad collision on the L. & N. at the Nashville depot one day this week.

Gen. Robt. C. Schenck died at Washington Sunday at the age of 81 years. He had been a soldier, a Congressman and Minister to Brazil.

Prof. Richard Dale Owen, of New Harmony, Ind., drank embalming fluid, thinking it was mineral water, and died from the poison last Tuesday.

The House has passed the World's Fair bill. The buildings are to be dedicated Oct. 14, 1892, and the Exposition opened not later than May 1, 1893.

The House committee on Elections has reported against unseating Parrott, of Indiana, and Buchanan, of Virginia. This disposes of seven of the contested cases.

Gov. Buckner has appointed Ed. Porter Thomson, the late Librarian, to succeed Will Griffith as his private secretary. The latter resigned to accept a more lucrative position.

Martin Hodges, Marshal of Uniontown, who killed one man and wounded another just outside the town limits last November, has been sentenced to 12 years in the penitentiary.

The Democratic Committee of Hopkins county has set April 22 as the time to investigate the charges of fraud at the Earlinton precinct, in the late primary. As three nominations depend upon the counting of this precinct, the investigation should have been made at once. If the returns were falsified this is the best course to pursue—a new election will have to be called to nominate a Sheriff, Clerk and School Superintendent. This election under the present arrangement could not be held earlier than May, which is a very busy season with everybody and a bad time to hold elections.

The lower house of the Kentucky Legislature, upon being informed of the death of Judge W. L. Jackson, unanimously adopted the following resolution:

"WHEREAS, This House has heard with sincere regret of the death of Judge W. L. Jackson, of the city of Louisville, whose ability as a jurist and whose worth as a man has made him famous all over Kentucky. Be it Resolved, That this earnest tribute to his memory be spread upon the records of this Houses that they may bear testimony to a career singularly pure and honorable, to a name upon which there is no stain, to a gentleman who, in every relation of life, whether on the bench or in the private station, has shown himself a credit to his city and State, and whose death will be felt as a personal loss to all who have come within the circle of his acquaintance. Be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to his bereaved family."

This may be taken as a direct rebuke to Gov. Buckner, who made a two-page assault upon Judge Jackson in his message, charging him with unlawfully remitting fines illegally abstaining money from the treasury, making illegal orders and in various ways violating his oath of office.

LEGISLATIVE MATTERS.

Forty-four new bills were given a start Tuesday in the House.

Mr. Smith introduced a bill to suppress lottery advertisements and publications.

Mr. Norman proposes to change the standard weight of a bushel of coal from 76 lbs. to 80 lbs.

The Committee on Federal Relations had the floor Wednesday and disposed of a number of bills.

The Senate bill chartering the Farmers and Merchants Bank, of Hopkinsville, has passed the House.

Mr. Holland introduced a bill to fine hotel proprietors from $10 to $100 for permitting waiters to receive "tips" from guests.

Mr. H. B. Clark introduced a bill requiring banks to pay a 3 per cent semi-annual dividend before adding to their surplus funds.

The Senate Committee on Revenue and Taxation has reported unfavorably the bill to tax corporations for the privilege of organizing.

The Senate has passed a bill reducing the pay of assessors from 14 cents to 1 cent on the $100 assessed after the second $1,000,000, which will materially reduce the pay of assessors.

The House killed the Senate bill extending to all sellers of drugs the requirements of the present pharmacy registration law. A bill was passed abolishing the annual registration now required of pharmacists.

The House committees on Banks, Court of Appeals and Superior Court, Public Health, Public Offices and Library, Mines and Mining and Printing had the floor Monday and Tuesday in regular order and disposed of many bills, mostly local.

JUDGE JACKSON DEAD.

The Pending Legislative Investigation Abruptly Ended.

Surrounded by all his family, Judge W. L. Jackson, of the Jefferson Circuit Court, died at 3:30 o'clock this morning, and in the flight of the immortal spark a useful citizen, an able jurist, a faithful friend, loving father and husband, in a word, a grand man passed away from the fields of his labors, his struggles, his triumphs.

Judge Jackson, in addition to his office of Judge of the Jefferson Circuit Court, was also the President of the People's Mutual Assurance Fund, of this city. He carried insurance in this and other companies to a large amount. This will go to his wife, Mrs. Jackson was Miss Sarah E. Creed, and she was married to Judge Jackson in Parkersburg about forty-two years ago. Their children are W. L. Jackson, Jr., Alex. H. Jackson and Mrs. F. J. Holden, who resides at Riverside, near Chicago, but who was here at the time of her father's death.

When Judge Jackson came here, in 1860, he entered into a partnership with Edward V. Parsons, the brilliant older brother of the present Commonwealth's Attorney. Mr. Parsons was the only native partner Judge Jackson ever had. In 1873, when Chancellor Cochran died, Gov. Leslie appointed Judge H. W. Bruce, who was then Circuit Judge, to fill the vacancy as Chancellor. At the same time he appointed Judge Jackson to the circuit bench to succeed Judge Bruce, the unexpired term being less than one year. At the succeeding election, in 1874, Judge Jackson was elected without opposition to succeed himself. This was the case again in 1880 and 1886. His present term extended until 1892.

Judge Jackson was a very gallant Confederate soldier and officer, and a meeting of the Confederate Association, of which he was one of the most prominent members, has been called for 8 o'clock this evening, at the Polytechnic Hall. Judge Jackson entered the Confederate service as a private, and after serving in that capacity for a time, during which he distinguished himself, he was appointed to be Colonel of the Thirty-First Virginia Volunteers, C. S. A., by Gov. Letcher. From that place he rose by his gallantry and ability to the rank of Brigadier General. During most of the war he fought under his cousin, "Stonewall" Jackson, and was the last to surrender his command, which he did at Richmond, after Gen. Lee's surrender.—Tuesday's Times.

The committee on re-apportioning the Congressional districts has agreed upon a plan and the bill will be offered at once. It makes ten districts absolutely sure for the Democrats by large majorities and gives the Republicans the Eleventh district by 9,000 majority. The only change in the Second district is the addition of Madison.

The Committee on Printing reported as approving the bill drawn up by Chief Clerk Kollar for the benefit of the country newspapers, which was introduced by Mr. Triplett. The bill was designed to regulate the advertisement of the sale of property under order of court or execution, and to order for the publication of notices of appointment and settlements of administrators, etc., and to fix the compensation for such advertising. The bill was laid on the table by vote of 36 to 27.

Governor Backer has sent to the Senate nominations as follows:

Mrs. Mary B. Day, to be State Librarian, in place of Ed. Porter Thompson, resigned.

L. C. Norman, to be Auditor of Public Accounts, in place of Fayette Hewitt, resigned.

C. J. Norwood, to be Inspector of Mines for four years from May 10, 1888.

W. J. Macey, to be State Inspector and Examiner, to fill the unexpired term of Rouben A. Miller, resigned.

J. W. Whitney, to be Commissioner of the Eastern Lunatic Asylum, in place of Thos. Mitchell, declined.

R. T. Petree, Thos. H. Carliss, Geo. W. Shuw, to be Commissioners of the Western Lunatic Asylum.

Deafness Can't be Cured

by local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rattling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that we can't cure by taking Half's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The Now York Ledger for March 22nd contains the first installment of an Irish story of to-day, by Harold Frederick, which will set the hearts of Irishmen on fire. The story is called "The Martyrdom of Maeve." The name of the heroine is Maeve. She is a beautiful and accomplished girl, and it is her martyrdom, suffered for her lover's sake, which is described. The story is full of intensely interesting incident, and is told with a simplicity and pathos which go straight to the heart.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to his bereaved family."

CHAMBERLAIN'S Eye and Skin Ointment.

A certain cure for Chronic Sore Eyes, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Seud Head, Old Chronic Sores, Fever Sores, Eczeema, Itch, Prairie Scratches, Sore Nipples and Piles. It is cooling and soothing. Hundreds of cases have been cured by it after all other treatment had failed. 25 and 50 cent boxes for sale by Buckner Leavel.

Another Mississippi levee was broken and the town of Skipwith, Izquierdo county, is under water. The floods came so unexpectedly that many people had to swim for their lives. Half the county will be overflowed. The gap is 400 feet wide and flowing rapidly.

Mr. James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Illinois, says: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right now and would insist on every one who is afflicted with that terrible disease, to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once. For sale by Buckner Leavel.

Here it is, and it fills the bill much better than anything we can say. "It gives me the greatest pleasure to write to you in regard to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. During the past winter I have sold more of it than any other kind, and have yet to find one that was better suited for my purpose. I have never had any medicine in my store that gave such universal satisfaction." J. M. ROXER, Druggist, Gedwin Springs, Kansas. 50 cent bottles for sale by Buckner Leavel.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. O'Neill, of Louisville, arrived in the city this week to visit a son at Dr. Ifordson's family.

Mrs. E. B. Bassett, who was called to Louisville by the sickness of a relative, returned Tuesday evening.

Mr. L. Smith, of the Plaaters Bank, has returned with his wife and sister from an extended visit to Florida.

Johnny Pickford, who has been employed in the W. U. Telegraph office for some time, has gone to St. Louis and will be given a place as operator on the Iron Mountain Railroad.

DEATHS.

Mr. John W. Campbell, long a prominent citizen of this county, died on the 22nd inst., at his home in this county, in his seventy-ninth year. He was for many years surveyor of the county and both in official and private relations ever conducted himself so as to command the respect and esteem of his neighbors. Mr. Campbell was a native of this county and had lived here all of his life.

Mrs. Marcellus C. Hay, a prominent lawyer and President of the Bank of Greenville, died at 1 o'clock n.m. Tuesday night of consumption. He was a member of the Orphans' Brigade, and a universally esteemed citizen. He was Orderly Sergeant in the Ninth Kentucky Confederate Regiment, and was wounded and captured at Shiloh.

Mrs. Spurlin, wife of Rev. J. U. Spurlin, died at her home near Sinking Fork, on the 25th inst. The funeral was preached at Brick Church Wednesday by Rev. A. W. Mr. Watterson's Lecture.

The Hon. Henry Watterson, the noted editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, and one of the most famous and aggressive political leaders of the South during the period since the war, will lecture at the Opera House on Thursday evening, April 10. His subject is "Money and Morals," a lecture that has been delivered in the large cities of the country to very large audiences, and with the result of attracting great attention. Mr. Watterson's career as an aggressive and brilliant journalist, his knowledge of politics and the moral tendency of current movements, his universally recognized eloquence and force as an orator, all unite to premise that his lecture is a masterpiece. Mr. Watterson's Southern tour has been undertaken in response to many urgent requests from Southern people who have never heard him speak. He is recognized as Kentucky's ablest orator, and that is a very high position to hold. There is no doubt that he ought to have a large audience.

The O. V.'s Intentions.

(Wednesday's Courier-Journal.)

The Paducah, Nashville and Charleston railroad has been incorporated under the laws of Kentucky. The incorporators are Hon. Benton McMillan, member of Congress from Tennessee, Hon. John E. Washington, member of Congress from Tennessee, W. J. Stou, J. K. Hendricks, J. J. Nall, H. B. Lyu, Charles Reed, Thos. H. Puryear, W. W. Powell, E. P. Noble, George C. Wallace, Warren W. Martin, J. L. James, Jr., J. F. Ford, T. T. Hillman and Myer Weil, of Paducah.

This road is intended to be an extension of the Ohio Valley road to Nashville and Tennessee, is incorporated under the name of the Nashville Northern. About $100,000 has been raised in Nashville towards building the road. The Ohio Valley is completed to Princeton, and is projected to Nashville, via Clarksville and Ashland, Tenn. There is some talk of extending the road toward the South after Nashville is reached. Dr. Wm. Morrow, a Nashville capitalist, is taking much interest in the proposed road, which it will enter Nashville over his bolt line, which is composed of the West Nashville and Overland Dummy lines. President Kelsey, of the Ohio Valley, was in Nashville some weeks ago and held a conference with Dr. Morrow. The proposed line runs through magnificent coal fields and iron beds, owned by Capt. S. S. Brown and others. There is every probability that this road will be well under way by fall.

"That tired feeling" is entirely overcome by Hood's Saraparilla, which gives a feeling of buoyancy and strength to the whole system.

CREAM OF NEWS.

An Elopement.

Mr. Mack S. Perkins and Miss Ellen Williamson, the pretty and pettish daughter of Mr. W. T. Williamson, eloped to Clarksville and were married in the parlor of the Arlington Hotel by Rev. Dr. A. D. Sears. They returned home the same afternoon.

"Penny" Turner's Enterprise.

Mr. S. H. Turner, of the South Kentucky Telephone Co., which already has a line to Cadiz, is soliciting the subscription of stock to connect with Trenton, Fairview, Casky and Pembroke. He is meeting with encouraging success and as he succeeds at everything he undertakes the line will probably be built. These towns ought by all means be connected with this city, in fact it is but a question of time when all of the country towns will have telephone connection. The Cadiz line is making 35 percent. annually on the stock.

Gracey Hunting Club.

About a dozen young men of the Gracey neighborhood have organized themselves into a hunting club and will take regular practice shooting at clay pigeons to make themselves thoroughly proficient in shooting birds. They have ordered a trap and a large consignment of pigeons and are ready to begin practicing every Saturday afternoon. The membership is as follows: H. H. Bryant, J. J. Reed, P. W. Baker, R. A. Baker, Geo. Harrison, Jas. F. Clardy, John Gaines, Jr., Herbert Cox, T. N. Washington, Wm. Page, W. T. Waddington and — Page.

The Commercial Club Meets.

The Commercial Club met Tuesday night for the consideration of several important matters.

First and foremost another railroad was discussed. The sentiment was universal in favor of taking active and decisive steps looking to another line. If the O. V. intends to submit another proposition, it must be done at once and not after months of dilly-dallying as heretofore. Any reasonable proposition that looks like business and promises quick work will be accepted by our people.

If the O. V. fails to act the people are determined to have a road and a local company will at once be organized and work set on foot.

The matter of getting a free post office also came up. Hopkinsville has largely more than the necessary population and last year the cancellation of stamps only fell $100 short of the requisite sum, we are informed. It is safe to estimate that at least $1,000 worth of stamps on letters mailed here are cancelled by physicians of Hopkinsville. For sale only by Rogers & Elgin.

Circuit Court has been disposing of unimportant equity cases this week, and few persons besides the court officials and lawyers have been about the court room.

Mr. O. S. Stevens has been dangerously ill with Pneumonia for several days and when we went to press yesterday afternoon was reported in a critical condition.

Mrs. Emma Haskenson, of Dayton, Ohio, selling supplies for secret societies, is in the city this week. She represents two of the best known houses.

Dr. E. F. Beckley, an experienced veterinary surgeon from Chicago, will arrive in a few days and locate in Hopkinsville. His headquarters will be at L. L. Buckner's livery stable.

Next Sunday will be spent in meeting at the Methodist church.

Presiding Elder G. H. Hay, who will conduct the services, is now in the city and will preach this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Charlie Campbell, who left shortly after he shot and wounded a negro boy last winter, near the depot, has returned home. The grand jury did not indict him, as it became evident upon investigation that the shooting was excusable.

Mr. H. G. O'Neill has succeeded in effecting a truce with his creditors, and consequently the sale of the contents of his handsome Third street home did not take place at the appointed time Monday morning.

Mr. Sears is his senior in years. She will be ninety-three the twenty-fifth of next July. She has suffered great affliction with her eyes and has lost the sight of one, but she is still able to look after her domestic affairs, her flowers and attend church regularly. She is quite fond of company and is bright and charming in conversation and repartee.—Clarksville Courier.

President National Bank.

McMinnville, Tenn., writes: From experience in my family, Dr. H. Mozley's Lemon Elixir has few, if any equals, and no superiors in medicines, for the regulation of the liver, stomach and bowels. Dr. H. Mozley's Lemon Hot Drops are superior to any remedies we have ever been able to get for throat and lung diseases. W. H. MAGNESS, Pres. Nat'l Bank.

NOTICE.—There is a fraudulent Lemon Elixir on the market—a whisky substitute, a Blind Tiger drink. See that you get Dr. H. Mozley's Lemon Elixir, an honest, reliable medicine.

CHARLIE CAMPBELL, who left shortly after he shot and wounded a negro boy last winter, near the depot, has returned home. The grand jury did not indict him, as it became evident upon investigation that the shooting was excusable.

Mr. H. G. O'Neill has succeeded in effecting a truce with his creditors, and consequently the sale of the contents of his handsome Third street home did not take place at the appointed time Monday morning.

Mr. Sears is his senior in years. She will be ninety-three the twenty-fifth of next July. She has suffered great affliction with her eyes and has lost the sight of one, but she is still able to look after her domestic affairs, her flowers and attend church regularly. She is quite fond of company and is bright and charming in conversation and repartee.—Clarksville Courier.
